8.Important Points When Submitting Your Application

(For Both General Admission and Recommendation-based Admission)

- (1) If any of the information provided in the application documents is factually inaccurate, or if any falsifications are discovered, you will become ineligible to take the entrance exam and enroll for that academic year.
- (2) Once the entrance examination fee and application documents have been submitted, they will not be returned under any circumstances.
- (3) If there are any questions about the application process, contact the Graduate School of Policy Studies.
- (4) Applicants with illnesses, injuries, or disabilities who require special accommodations for taking the entrance examination and studying after enrollment must notify the Graduate School of Policy Studies at least one month before the application start date.
- (5) A medical examination will be conducted after enrollment, so applicants do not need to submit a medical certificate at the time of application or enrollment.
- (6) We will ask you to submit an official research supervisor request application after enrollment. Because each faculty member can supervise a limited number of students, and the faculty member may be unable to supervise your research for reasons such as retirement or research leave. Therefore, be sure to inquire with the Graduate School of Policy Studies.

9.Issuance of Examination Admission Card

(For Both Recommendation-based and General Admission)

After the application period, the examination admission card will be mailed to arrive at your registered address no later than three days before the examination date. If the examination admission card does not arrive three days before the examination date, please contact the Graduate School of Policy Studies.

- Inquiries concerning entrance examination results through phone or email will not be accepted.

14. Enrollment Procedures (For Both Recommendation-based and General Admission)

Successful applicants should complete the following enrollment procedures (I and II) within the specified period.

(1) Enrollment Procedure I <Payment of Enrollment Fee>

Please use the designated form and pay the Enrollment Fee at a financial institution (not at a post office/Japan Post Bank) within the following period.

< First round (Announced on Friday, August 8, 2025)>

Friday, August 22 - Friday, August 29, 2025

<Second round (Announced on Friday, February 27, 2026)>

Friday, February 27 - Friday, March 6, 2026

Payment at a financial institution (not at a post office/Japan Post Bank)

Please complete the payment by wire transfer at the teller's window of a financial institution (not at a post office/Japan Post Bank). If you transfer from the head/branch office of the financial institution in Japan listed on the remittance request form, no handling fees are required. The financial institution's teller stamp will serve as proof of payment receipt from KGU. The teller stamp is valid through the payment deadline date. Please note that the handling of teller stamp dates may vary across financial institutions, so if you are paying close to the deadline, please confirm with the financial institution in advance that the payment procedure will be completed by the deadline. Payments via ATM or internet banking is not accepted.

(2) Enrollment Procedure II <Payment of tuition and other fees, and submission of documents>

The procedures (i) and (ii) below should be completed within the specified time frame.

(i) Payment of Tuition and Other Fees

Similar to the aforementioned "(1) Enrollment Procedure I," complete the payment at the teller's window of a financial institution (not at a post office/Japan Post Bank). The payment method is the same as for "(1) Enrollment Procedure I" above. The payment period is as follows:

Friday, February 27 - Friday, March 13, 2026

Wire transfer at a financial institution

(Not at a post office/Japan Post Bank)

(ii) Submission of Enrollment Documents

Submit the following documents to the Graduate School of Policy Studies by 15:00 on Friday, March 13, 2026. If sent by mail, the documents should arrive within the designated submission period.

- a. "Certificate of Items stated in Resident Register" (issued by a municipal office in Japan, certifying name, address, date of birth, and gender of the person enrolling. A certified copy of your certificate of residence is also acceptable. Foreign nationals should submit a certificate which includes nationality, residence status, and residence period limit in addition to the above.)
 - *For international students residing outside Japan should submit a copy of passport.
 - *If the municipality does not have a designated form, the required information should be entered on the enclosed "Request for Certification" in the enrollment procedure guideline documents, and certification should be obtained from the municipal office.
- b. "Student ID Photo Submission Sheet" (form designated by KGU)
- c. "Report of Financial Supporter" (form designated by KGU)
 - *For international students only
- d. Other documents (submission documents listed in the "Enrollment Procedure Guidelines")

(3) Entrance Ceremony

Wednesday, April 1, 2026 (planned)

*For details, please refer to the enrollment guide to be sent in early March 2026.

(Notes)

1. Those who fail to complete the enrollment procedures I and II within the specified periods will be regarded as having no intention of entering the Graduate School of Policy Studies, resulting in the withdrawal of the offer of acceptance.
2. The paid enrollment fee and associated charges are non-refundable.
3. The admission application fee (equal to the admission fee) paid during the Enrollment Procedure I period will be treated as the admission fee when paying tuition and other fees.
4. The submitted documents will not be returned.

15. List of Course Teachers
