

35TH ANNUAL CANADIAN STUDIES SEMINAR②

WHO OWNS THE ARCTIC? CANADA'S STORY

The importance of the Arctic is growing. This presentation highlights key moments in Canada's Arctic history, showing why the region matters both to Canada and the world. With growing global interest in the Arctic due to climate change, resource development, and changing trade routes, Canada's experiences offer important insights.

Tuesday, Dec. 9, 13:20~15:00 (On-site, Online)

On-site Venue: Room 304, Bldg B, Nishinomiya Uegahara Campus

Language : English (Japanese translation when necessary)

Guest Lecturer
Prof. Sandra den Otter,

Vice-Provost, Global Engagement at Queen's University

Visiting Professor at KGU (CIEC)
Ph.D. from University of Oxford
Academic field: History

Moderator
Prof. Norie Yazu

Professor of KGU, Center for International Education and Cooperation

- Ph.D. from Tokyo University of Foreign Studies
- Professor of Kanda University of International Studies (2008-2022)
- Academic field : Canadian Studies, Sociolinguistics
- President, Japanese Association for Canadian Studies

Anyone is welcome to participate!

Registration deadline: Dec. 4

Registration Form:

<https://x.gd/rkNUg>

※You can also apply
through this QR code ⇒

Participation Fee : Free

Zoom Webinar Link :

Notified to participants after closing the registration.

Campus Map :

<https://x.gd/908gA>

In-person or online participation is available