

Research Integrity Pledge

To the President, Kwansei Gakuin University

When I perform my research activities, I promise to acknowledge and comply with the content of all relevant laws and regulations, and the various rules established by the University, distribution organizations or others in accordance with the “Kwansei Gakuin University Research and Ethics Standards.”

Further, I recognize that the research funds allocated to me are supported by the tuition paid by students, public funds, and other outside funds, and pledge that I will use them fairly and efficiently and will never engage in any act of dishonesty in connection with my research activities.

If I engage in any act of dishonesty in violation of relevant laws, regulations, and rules,

I acknowledge that I will be subject to dispositions and legal liabilities imposed by the University, distribution organizations, and others.
