Good morning everyone. Before I start, remember you must take notes. There will be a short quiz about this presentation in the next class. Okay, is everyone ready? Good. Let's begin. You know I'm from England, right? But where in England? I come from Cornwall. Do you know it? Please write it down. The spelling is easy. "Corn" is the food – C O R N. And "wall" is like the walls of a house. And, it is one word, not two. Cornwall is in the south of England. But it is not near London. Look at the map. It is here, in the west. There is lots of sea and many nice beaches. Actually, in England, Cornwall is famous for surfing. If you go to Cornwall, please go in the summer. And don't forget your swimming clothes. Cornwall also has a famous food. It is called a "pasty." It is a kind of meat pie. Usually, there is beef, onion and potato in a pasty. It is delicious. Also, you can have cheese, onion and potato. And some people even like pork and apple! My favorite is the common, normal one. I hope you can go to Cornwall one day and eat a pasty. I have told you two good things about Cornwall, but you must be careful. There is one bad thing about Cornwall. It's the weather. Summer in England is colder than Japan, but it isn't really cold. However, sometimes it rains a lot in Cornwall, so you must bring a raincoat. Okay, that's it. We have five minutes before the lesson ends. Please check your notes with your friends. Raise your hands if you want to ask some questions. Don't forget the quiz next class.
