

SIS Lecture Series 63

– Special seminar as part of KGU initiatives under MEXT’s “Global 30 Plus” –
In cooperation with the Institute for Industrial Research

Free Admission

Ms. ANNE BARRINGTON

Ambassador of Ireland to Japan

Lecture Title:

“Japan and Ireland: More Similarities than Differences”

Date: Tuesday, May 26, 13:30 – 15:00

Venue: Library Hall at KGU-Uegahara Campus

*This is an open seminar, and no reservation is required.

*The lecture will be given in English (no interpretation provided).

About the lecturer

Ambassador of Ireland to Japan

Ms. ANNE BARRINGTON

Education:

BA – National University of Ireland, 1975
Certificate in Public Administration, IPA, 1976
Diploma in European Law, National University of Ireland, 1995
Doctorate in Governance Queen’s University Belfast (pending)

Career:

Entered the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) as a Third Secretary in March 1977
August 2004 Counsellor, Corporate Services, DFA
September 2005 Seconded as Director of the National Forum on Europe
September 2007 Ambassador to Tanzania (and also Kenya and Burundi)
August 2010 Assistant Secretary, Armagh North/South Ministerial Council Joint Secretariat
November 2011 Assistant Secretary, Europe Division and Strategy and Performance Division, DFA
September 2014 Ambassador to Japan

