Kwansei Gakuin is one of the most prestigious private schools in Japan, dating back to 1889, when it was founded by the American missionary, Reverend Walter Russell Lambuth, M.D.. It is now a comprehensive and integrated educational institute with a university, college, junior college, senior high school, junior high school, elementary school and kindergarten, all based on Christian principles.

Kwansei Gakuin University (KGU) has 13 graduate schools and 10 undergraduate schools. The School of Policy Studies was established in 1995 to achieve an integration of theoretical and practical studies to promote the coexistence of human beings with nature. The School of Policy Studies now encompasses four departments as below:

Department of Policy Studies

Department of Applied Informatics

Department of Urban Studies

Department of International Policy Studies

SCHOOL OF POLICY STUDIES

Be a Citizen of the World, Serving to Create a Better Future.

Outline of SPS

“Think Globally, Act Locally.” is our school motto. We aim to nurture students’ development of both interdisciplinary and specialist abilities, so that they can act locally to solve problems using a global perspective. At the School of Policy Studies, students strive to come up with appropriate policies for solutions to major worldwide problems and challenges, such as environmental disruption, international disputes, poverty, information divides, and urban problems that confront the world, based on a philosophy of “Coexistence between people and nature, and coexistence among people.”

You can learn study such fields as politics, economics, law, business administration, sociology, engineering, science, human science, and social welfare.

Graduate Program: Master’s and Doctoral Course (In the Master’s course, the International Development Strategy area offers an English-medium program in which classes are taught in English and papers are written in English.)

研究生课程: 硕士课程, 博士课程

Ah-young Lee, Seoul, Korea, 3rd grade student

One of good points for international students at SPS is that they can acquire Japanese and English at the same time because SPS has many classes which are only taught in English. They can also learn technical words and specialties. Moreover, many students have open minds to international matters because of classes such as “Language and Multiculturalism.” If you are in SPS, you can improve your abilities such as communication skill and how to associate with new people through the chapel committee and club activities.

유학생들에게 있어서 종합정책학부의 장점 중 하나는 일본어능력과 영어능력을 동시에 익힐 수 있다는 점입니다. 게다가 영어로 진행되는 수업이 많아, 전문용어를 손쉽게 접함으로써 전문성을 향상시킬 수 있습니다. 또한, 다양한 언어·문화에 관한 수업이 많은 만큼, 종합정책학부의 학생들의 태도는 외국인 유학생들에게 보다 개방적입니다. 이러한 환경 안에서 유학생들은, 채플위원회·서클활동을 통하여, 일본인과의 교제, 의사소통능력 능력의 향상을 도모할 수 있습니다.

Yu Kanazawa, Sanda, Japan, 3rd grade student

In SPS, we can study many kinds of topics. To study beyond one field makes students get broadened views. And we can choose what we really want to learn while studying many kinds of fields. Students will come to try to solve problems from various points of views, such as Ecology, International Development and Urban Policy. Therefore, I suggest that you take many kinds of classes.

総合政策学部では、様々な分野を勉強することができるのが魅力です。いろんなことを学べるから、自分に合ったものを勉強できると 생각합니다。そうすることで、ひとつの問題も多方面からみることができるし、自分が何を勉強したいかまだ決まっていなくてもその選択肢が広がるというののもいいところだと思います。エコロジー、国際発展政策、都市政策などいろんな視点から物事をみつめられるようになるので、いろんな分野の授業を受けて欲しいです。

Yang Song, Jilin, China, Alumna, working as System Engineer

I learned a lot of things during 4 years in SPS. I think what I learned is very useful after graduation. Through my student life, I knew the importance of being diligent. I was aroused by the diligence of two disabled friends of mine. Now, I’m doing every task with all my diligence. I think this attitude that I got in SPS will be useful throughout my life.

在综合政策学部的四年学习生活中, 我学到了很多知识。进入社会后, 我觉得这些都是非常有用的。特别是“对待事物的认真态度”。在学期间, 我结识了两位残疾学生朋友, 看到他们努力学习的身影, 我对自己悠闲且不认真的生活态度感到羞愧。从这两位同学的身上, 我学到了“认真地生活态度”。我明白了, 无论做什么事都应该认真地去对待。在工作上, 这种认真的态度也对我有了很大的帮助。
