

---

---

Value Research in Management Studies

---

---

Edited by Toshihiko Ishihara

Part 1

Theory and Practice

- 1 Significance of Value Research in Management Studies: Theory, Practice and Japanese Perspectives
Toshihiko Ishihara, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
Kenichiro Harada, Tohoku University, Japan
- 2 How Do Family Firms Create Value for Shareholders?
Koji Kojima, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
Bishnu Kumar Adhikary, University of Hyogo, Japan
- 3 Values of Design Thinking in Business Education: A Systematic Review
Satoshi Sugahara, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
Claudio Dell'Era, Politecnico di Milano, Italy
Ochilov Bobur Bakhtiyor, Tashkent State University of Economics, Uzbekistan
- 4 Sustainability Reporting, Assurance, and Firm Value
Mohammad Badrul Haider, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan

Part 2

Japanese Perspectives

- 5 Integrated Reporting in Japanese Universities: How are Pioneers Telling their Value Creation Stories?
Taslima Akhter, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
- 6 Unravelling Mechanisms of Value Co-creation in Kinosaki Hot Spa: Based on Public Service Ecosystem
Naoki Inoue, The University of Fukuchiyama, Japan
Shinichi Tanioka, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan

- 7 Value Creation and Performance Evaluation in Japanese Local Governments: Focusing on the Case of Usuki City
Fumiaki Himawari, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
Daisaku Sakai, Osaka University of Economics, Japan
- 8 Perception of Value and its Center of Gravity in the Management Reform of SMEs: A Case of Japanese Ship Repair Industry
Hiroki Sekishita, Wakayama University, Japan
- 9 Deriving a Multilayered Logic Model in Public Management: A Comprehensive Community Care System in Japan
Ryoji Matsuo, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan
- 10 Value Co-creation by Regional University and Regional Venture Company: Perspective of Solving Social Issues
Toshio Araki, Fukuyama University, Japan