Lecturer: Professor Dr. Miro Haček,
Associate Professor Dr. Simona Kukovič

Dr. Haček, researcher of regional politics and economic conditions in Central and Eastern European countries with a focus on Slovenia, along with Dr. Kukovič, specialist in populism and leadership studies, will give a special lecture on “Post-covid Central and Eastern Europe: Economic and Democratic Decline”.

The lecture will cover not only the economic situation in Central and Eastern European countries, including Slovenia, but also the political situation in Hungary, which is unique in terms of law and justice in the EU, and its relationship with Russia. The social problem of population decline caused by economic stagnation in the 1990s and immigration to former member countries will also be discussed.
